EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312.

To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for the amendment was granted by Mr. Alan Rego in an interview dated 11-3-06.

The application has been amended as follows:

- Please replace all previous listing of claims with the claims inserted below.

1. (Currently Amended) A Kelvin connector for coupling to a post of a battery, comprising:

a first contact having a surface which at least partially conforms to and is adapted to engage and electrically connect to a surface of such post;

a second contact having a surface which at least partially conforms to and is adapted to engage and electrically connect to the surface of such post; and an electrical insulator between, and at least partially overmolded on, the first contact and the second contact to define an alignment plane that is substantially transverse to such post, to mechanically connect the contacts together and to align the surface of the first contact and the surface of the second contact against the surface of such post and thereby form a Kelvin connection to such post, wherein the first contact, the second contact and the insulator form a closed loop that is used to encircle such battery post; and wherein the first contact and the second contact are substantially horizontally opposed to each other within the alignment plane.

2.(Canceled)

3.(Canceled)

4.(Original) The apparatus of claim 1 wherein the first contact comprises:

an insulator support portion which is embedded within the electrical insulator; and a post grasping portion on which the surface of the first contact resides.

7.(Canceled)

8.(Canceled)

9.(Previously Presented) The apparatus of claim 1 further comprising a first connection bar integral with the first electrical contact and a second connection bar integral with the second electrical contact.

10.(Original) The apparatus of claim 1 wherein the first electrical contact and the second electrical contact are formed from electrically conductive sheet metal.

11.(Original) The apparatus of claim 1 wherein the first electrical contact and the second electrical contact are copper pieces with solder plating.

12.(Original) The apparatus of claim 1 wherein the insulator comprises plastic.

13.(Original) The apparatus of claim 1 wherein the insulator comprises a composite material.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

- The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art does not show an electrical insulator at least partially overmolded on the first contact and the second contact to define an alignment plane that is substantially transverse to the post and the contacts are substantially horizontally opposed to each other within the alignment plane in combination with all the other elements of the claim and the examiner knows of no permissible motivation to combine the prior art such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Art Unit: 2833

4. During the interview it was agreed that the structure and corresponding location of post, contacts, and alignment plane is not anticipated by the prior art and the examiner knows of no permissible motivation to modify the art as is claimed by applicant.

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to James R. Harvey whose telephone number is 571-272-2007. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:00 A.M. To 5:00 P.M.
